

Elisabetta Zonca

Riflessioni sulle applicazioni delle Linee guida sul trattamento dei fondi personali nelle biblioteche di architettura.

Le Linee guida sul trattamento dei fondi personali, elaborate dalla Commissione nazionale biblioteche speciali, archivi e biblioteche d'autore dell'AIB, hanno l'obiettivo di fornire alcune indicazioni operative e di metodo sul trattamento dei fondi personali. Vi si possono individuare, per chi lavora in una istituzione votata alle discipline architettoniche, alcuni stimoli molto utili ad orientare i vari passaggi, la selezione, la progettazione e la gestione dei fondi di persona provenienti dai professionisti del mondo dell'architettura e dell'ingegneria.

The Linee guida sul trattamento dei fondi personali, drawn up by the AIB's Commissione nazionale biblioteche speciali, archivi e biblioteche d'autore, aim to provide some operational and methodological indications about the treatment of personal fonds. Thanks to them, it is possible to identify, for those who work in an institution devoted to architectural disciplines, some very useful stimuli to guide the various steps, i.e. the selection, design and management of personal papers from professionals in the world of architecture and engineering.

Reflections on the applications of guidelines on the treatment of personal collections in architecture libraries.

The guidelines on the treatment of personal collections drawn up by the National Commission for Special Libraries and Archives, and Author Libraries of the AIB, have the objective of providing some operational and methodological recommendations on the treatment of personal collections. For those who work in institutions devoted to architectural disciplines, it is possible to identify some very useful directions in developing strategies for the selection, planning and management of personal collections acquired from professionals in the world of architecture and engineering.